

CHAPTER-3
COMPUTER SOFTWARE

I. Answer the following questions

1. What is software?

Ans. Software is a set of programs that tells your computer how to perform a particular job.

2. What do we call the set of programs to control the operation of computer?

Ans. System software is a set of programs that controls the operation of computer.

3. Name the different types of operating system.

Ans. Different types of operating system are:

1. Windows 95
2. Windows 2000
3. Windows ME etc.

4. Define system software.

Ans. System software is a set of programs that controls the operation of computer.

5. Define application software.

Ans. Application software is designed to perform specific types of job.

6. What is word processing software?

Ans. Word processing software helps to write letter notes etc. on the computer system.

II. Explain

1. Operating system: It is a set of programs that controls the overall activity of computer.
2. Programs: It is the set of instructions given to a computer.