

Note: Students are requested to write the following notes in their moral science copy.

Chapter 1

God- The Unseen Spirit

I. Answer the following questions:

1. What is the purpose of education?

Ans: The purpose of education is to impart wisdom and to become good citizen.

2. What are the two types of wisdom?

Ans: Two types of wisdom are:-

(i) Wisdom of God.

(ii) Wisdom of man.

3. How can you say, God is one for all?

Ans: God is one supreme power who created the whole universe.

4. Where can one find God?

Ans: We can find God within ourselves.

5. What is the relation between education and religion?

Ans: Religion imparts and shares experience of God and education help us to believe in God.

II. Match it:

1. God - one supreme power

2. Good citizen - prosperous nation

3. Best creation - man

4. Peaceful society - knowledge about God

5. Wisdom - understanding something

III. Write true or false:

1. The purpose of education is to impart knowledge to students. (True)

2. Wisdom doesn't mean to understand something. (false)
3. Man is the supreme creation of God. (True)
4. A futile education prepares the ground in man to become a true believer. (False)
5. Every religion imparts and shares their experience of God. (True)

IV. Fill in the blanks:

1. The purpose of education is to impart wisdom/knowledge to the students.
2. Education prepares the students to be good citizens and builders of a prosperous nation.
3. If a system of education is unable to impart the wisdom or knowledge about God to its students, that system of education is futile.
4. Man is the best creation of God.
5. One should become a man of prayer.