

HOLY CROSS CONVENT SENIOR SECONDARY SCHOOL, AMBIKAPUR

CLASS - V

SUBJECT - ENGLISH

NOTE – Students are requested to write the following notes in their English note book

Students are instructed write with a black gel/blue gel

CHAPTER-1

Who Will Be Ningthou

I. Word meaning-

1. Chief minister – head of ministers
2. Expert – a person with a special skill
3. Huge – very large in size
4. Mounted – climbed on something
5. Restless – unable to stay still
6. Searching – trying to find something
7. Triumphantly – victoriously
8. Uprooted – pulled out of the ground

II. Answer the following -

Q1. Where is the land of Kangleipak?

Ans. The land of Kangleipak is in Manipur.

Q2. How many sons did Ningthou and Leima have? What were their names?

Ans. The Ningthou and Leima had three sons. They were Sanajaoba, Sanayaima and Sanatomba.

Q3. Why did the king select Sanatombi as the future ruler?

Ans. The king selected Sanatombi as the future ruler because she always felt the pain of others.

III Think and answers -

Q.1. Why do you think the Ningthou and the Leima were loved dearly by the people?

Ans. The Ningthou and the Leima were loved dearly by the people because they always cared for the people.

Q.2. Do you think the Ningthou was a good king? Give reasons for your answer.

Ans. Yes, the Ningthou was a good king because he loved and cared everyone in his kingdom.

Q.3. Why did the Ningthou want to name the Tunggi Ningthou?

Ans. The Ningthou wanted to name the Tunggi Ningthou because he was getting older.

IV. (Hots) question-

Q.1. If the selection of the Tunggi Ningthou was done on the basis of the contest, who do you think would have been chosen amongst the three princes?

Ans. I think Sanayaima would have been chosen amongst the three princes because he jumped over the banyan tree without hurting it.