

Chapter 2 Our Constitution

Oral question :

1 What is the introduction of our Constitution called ?

Ans - The introduction of our Constitution is called Preamble.

Write short answers :

1 What is a Constitution ?

Ans - Constitution is a set of rules according to which an independent country is governed .

2 Why is it important to have a Constitution ?

Ans - It is important to have a Constitution because –

- It introduces us to the set of rules for country.
- It gives us rights .

3 (a) What is a Preamble of a constitution ?

Ans - Our Constitution is a written document . The introduction of Constitution is called Preamble.

(b) What are its main features ?

Ans- Its main features are –

- a. Our Constitution is a written document.
- b. Sovereign, Socialist , Secular and Democratic Republic.

Answer the following questions :

1 What does a socialist country promise ?

Ans - A socialist country promises economic and social equality among the people.

2 What is a democracy ?

Ans - Democracy is the government of the people by the people and for the people .

3 What is a secular state ?

Ans - A secular state means that every person has a right to preach and practice any religion of his / her choice .

4 What are Fundamental Rights ? Explain in detail.

Ans - The constitution of India has given as certain rights, these rights are called Fundamental Rights.

These rights are –

- Equality
- Liberty
- Justice
- Fraternity

5 We should treat everyone equally . Do you agree ? Why/ Why not ?

Ans- Yes, We should treat everyone equally because everyone is human being just like us. Our Constitution has also given us right to equality.

Hots question :

1.Mr. Anandmani wants to open a religious institution . Do you think he can do this ? Give reasons .

Ans - Yes , Mr Anandmani can open a religious institution because our country is a secular country and Constitution has given as freedom to open religious institution .