

NOTE - Write the following notes in your English fair copy with blue pen in a good handwriting.

Word Meanings

- 1. Anklets - Pieces of jewellery worn around the ankle.
- 2. Disappeared - became impossible to be seen.
- 3. Expensive - costing a lot of money.
- 4. Forward - towards a place or position that is in front.
- 5. Guess - to try and give answer about something.
- 6. Instead - in the place of somebody/something.
- 7. Nodded - head move up and down to show agreement.
- 8. Noticed - saw someone/something.
- 9. Refused - said no to something that was offered.
- 10. Worry - to keep thinking about problems that you have.

FROM THE STORY

Read and Answer

1. What was Chanda's sister's name?

Answer - Chanda's sister name was Munni.

2. Why could the toy seller not buy anklets for his daughter?

Answer - The toy seller could not buy anklets for his daughter because he was poor.

3. Why did Chanda see as she sat beside the window?

Answer - Chanda saw a man and a girl walking towards her house.

4. Why did both sisters cry loudly?

Answer - Both sisters cried loudly because the toy seller had taken away the silver anklet.

Think and Answer-

1. Why did Chanda's mother scold the girls?

Answer - Chanda's mother scolded the girls because they had lost the silver anklet.

2. Who do you think, was honest - the toy seller or his daughter? Support your answer with a reason

Answer - The toy seller daughter was honest because she refused to take stolen anklets.

3. Why do you think, the toy seller had covered his face when he came with his daughter?

Answer - The toy seller had covered his face because he was ashamed with his deeds.

4. Which words describe Chandini best? Give reasons to support your answer.

Answer - The words that describe Chandini the best are honest, loyal, truthful because she returned the stolen anklet.

5. What would you have done with the anklet if you were in Chandini's place? Would you have acted honestly? Why/Why not?

Answer - Like Chandini I would have also motivated my father to return the anklet.

Yes, I would have acted honestly because honesty is the best policy.

HOTS

1. Why did Chanda's mother name the doll Chandini?

Answer - Chanda's mother named the doll Chandini because she was impressed with Chandini's honest act.